Faces of Animals Waiting for Their Forever Homes.

Our wish at this time of the year is that we, with your help, find loving homes for wonderful dogs and cats who have been with us too long. Here are the faces of those animals waiting... There is really no place like home.

Joy

Joy is very loving and gentle. She always greets us with a chirp and is constantly purring when someone is around. She is the perfect kitty.

Lyric

Lyric's green eyes are so pretty. She's always showing off to get our attention! She loves chasing toys but will snuggle next to you when she wears herself out.

Major

Major's gentle gaze and laid-back temperament make him a star. He is quiet, loving, and handsome.

Rocko

Rocko is a comedian. Once he greets us, we say "ready, set, go" and he runs with glee. Happy and quiet, he returns to his condo without our request.

Fritz's Lucky Journey

This newsletter is in honor of Sandy's angel, Dixie. May her memory be a blessing.

Fritz when discovered by Cindy

Fritz's quiet, distressed mewing caught Cindy's attention. She discovered him hiding under her holly bush, starved, and lost. After days of TLC, food, and veterinary care, Fritz has become a very handsome and special companion to a new family who love him very much.

Fritz with Mary

If you have never donated in the past, consider a ONE TIME donation for animals like Fritz. We appreciate your consideration for "animals in need" of extra care. YOU REALLY CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE.
