DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Jane, Gem and Apply

Happy Summer,

How different would your life be without your beloved dog or cat?

Our adopters are golden, and their adoptive companions are the best.

The animal to human connection is fascinating. In my work with many different animals - dolphins, monkeys, fish, dogs, and cats - I find that each species brings new insight.

Henry Beston said: "Animals are not brethren, they are not underlings: they are other nations, caught with ourselves in the net of life and time."

We press forward here every day to improve our work for animals and for their families.

Being kind to animals teaches us all to be kind to one another.

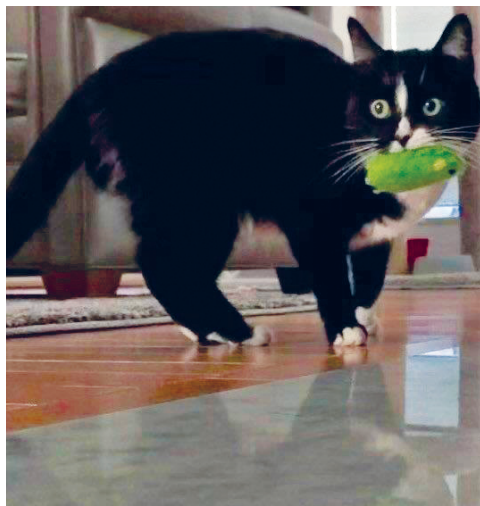

Thank you for your support.

Jane

In Memory of Sassycat, 2011 - 2023

Sassy Cat was loved dearly by Mia and Philip who describe her as beautiful, intelligent, and a loving tuxedo kitty. She was "a friend to all" and will be missed forever by her family. We send our love and support to Mia and Philip.

Cleo and Clipper have been with us since early 2022 and enjoy living together in our lobby. They are looking for a "Furever" home, where they can stay together and become loving members of your family. Contact us if you need furry some furry love.

Friends are Forever

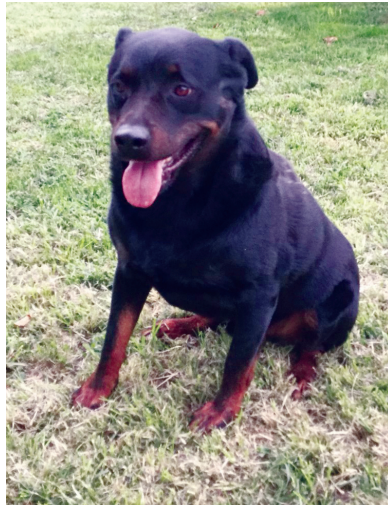

Luna her mom, Stephanie, and her dad, Jared (not pictured) stopped by to visit and to donate pet food.

They also shared a little love with Danni, the puppy pictured, who recently found her forever home (see her picture on page one). We are grateful for friends, and we appreciate their kindness for remembering our animals waiting for their new, loving homes.

SPECIAL FAMILIES, SPECIAL LOVE

We are fortunate that special families come into our lives with understanding hearts. Maggie was a “feral” pup when she arrived 19 years ago, and many thought she would not find a home. Baron arrived, a frightened and shut down Rottweiler 12 years ago. Then a few years ago Saber arrived. He is a world class athlete, a Michael Jordan, and a super smart Houdini. These three dogs each needed a special home with dog savvy and companion committed families.

Eighteen years ago, that type of family came for Maggie and twelve years ago the same family took Baron. Rob and Kathleen said that at their home Maggie was initially extra cautious until a year of their love made her trust them. Baron would become frightened if anyone picked up a comb or brush until he realized he was now safe.

In March, 2022 Rob came back to meet Saber. He visited this robust and loving dog and decided to make him part of their family too. Could Maggie, then 17 years old, become friends with Saber, the gladiator? As Saber realized he was loved, yet had to follow rules, he began to fit into the three-dog family. Soon Saber realized Maggie was in charge – she was street smart, tough and a survivor! And Saber worships Baron.

Rob says: “Time, time, time is important with any dog. A dog is not just a privilege; it’s a responsibility. They depend on us for food, shelter and deserve much more.” Rob and Kathleen adopt dogs from us that they feel need extra commitment. They understand and we are grateful to them for loving dogs as they do. Maggie passed peacefully at home this year at age 19. Rob, Kathleen, and family made all the difference in her life.

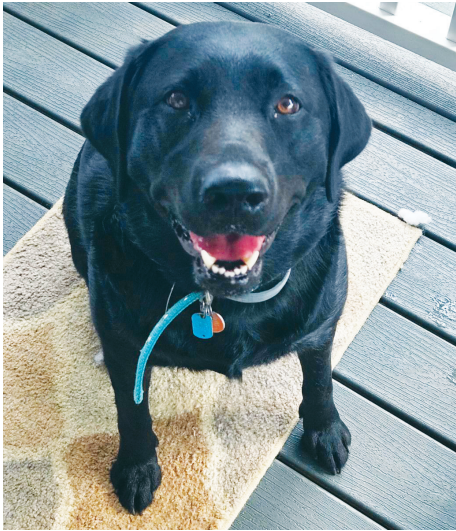

Your Support Saves Lives

Braveheart was found tied to a picnic table with no shelter. She could not move an inch because her chain was short and tangled. Five dogs were rescued from this home in similar circumstances. All five dogs are safe. If you have never donated, consider a one-time donation for dogs like Braveheart.
